There was much in the manner and aspects of the celebration that recalled their native land to the envoys. From the moment they stepped aboard the police boat Patrol the skyline of the city was colored with the emblem of Italy.

GERMAN SOCIALIST PAPER SHUT DOWN FOR PROTEST ON AIR RAIDS

A MSTERDAM, June 21.—According to the Deutsche Tages Zeitung, the Breslau Socialist newspaper Volkswacht has been suppressed for protesting against air raids on London in which women and children are killed.

"Truly," the Volkswacht is quoted as saying, "our British com-rades have no easy task in going to Stockholm to negotiate with their enemies. It is a miracle that they are not lynched or torn to pieces in such a moment of fury."

In the last air raid on London, that of June 13, more civilians were killed than in any preceding raid and under conditions that aroused greater indignation. In all 104 people were killed, and of these sixteen were children less than 5 years old. Ten of these were killed in a school. All told, 120 children of all ages were killed or injured. The total casualties were 507.

At the City Hall pennants that bore the uames of their country's greatest marked the confines of the court of honor. And so it was around the Garibaldi statue in Washington Square, in front of the Public Library and all along Fifth avenue. Versitably it was a Roman holiday.

Add to this the thousands of school children taken from the Italian districts, whose voices blended at one moment in The Stars Spangled Banner' and in the least weak, preferring not to use the poor substitutes rather than to irritate the bands that brought the homeland closer through their melodies, and the unbroken lines of men, women and children, who waved the flags of the two countries. It proved to Prince Ferdinand of Savoy that the new alliance is see of soul, body and spirit.
